Changes to your 2009 Form 1040

Adjusted refund: $543.00

We believe there's a miscalculation on your 2009 Form 1040, which affects the following area of your return:

- Earned Income Tax Credit

We made changes to your return that correct this error. As a result, you are due a refund of $543.00.

Summary

Payments you made	$39,500.00
Tax you owed	-38,957.00
Refund due	$543.00

What you need to do

Review this notice, and compare our changes to the information on your tax return.

If you agree with the changes we made

- You should receive a refund for $543.00 in 4-6 weeks as long as you don't owe other tax or debts we're required to collect.

What you need to do—continued

If you don't agree with the changes

- Call [REDACTED] to review your account. You can also contact us by mail. Fill out the Contact information section, detach, and send it to us with any correspondence or documentation.
- If you contact us in writing within 60 days of the date of this notice, we will reverse the change we made to your account. However, if you are unable to provide us additional information that justifies the reversal and we believe the reversal is in error, we will forward your case for audit. This step gives you formal appeal rights, including the right to appeal our decision in court before you have to pay the additional tax. After we forward your case, the audit staff will contact you within 5 to 6 weeks to fully explain the audit process and your rights. If you do not contact us within the 60-day period, you will lose your right to appeal our decision before payment of tax.
- If you do not contact us within 60 days, the change will not be reversed and you must pay the additional tax. You may then file a claim for refund. You must submit the claim within 3 years of the date you filed the tax return, or within 2 years of the date of your last payment for this tax.
- If we don't hear from you, we'll assume you agree with the information in this notice.

Changes to your 2009 tax return

Information was changed because of the following:

- We have changed the amount of your Earned Income Credit because one or more social security number, taxpayer identification number, last name, or date of birth was not correct or was missing. Because of recent tax law changes affecting the earned income credit and dependent exemptions, you may no longer be eligible for the earned income credit or to claim the exemption.
