Message about your Form 940

You didn't file your tax return

We sent you a previous notice asking you to file your Form 940. However, we still haven't received a response from you.

Summary of unfiled returns

Form number	Tax period
940	2016

What you need to do immediately

If you need to file this return

Complete and sign your return, and either mail it to us in the enclosed envelope or fax it to (855) 800-5944.

If you owe a tax payment with your return

Pay electronically now using one of the payment options described in this notice or include your payment with your return in the enclosed envelope.

If you can't pay the amount due

Pay as much as you can now and make payment arrangements that allow you to pay off the rest over time. Review all of our payment options in the payment options section of this notice.

If you think we made a mistake

Complete the enclosed Response form to tell us you already filed a return or why you think you don't have to file one. Mail your completed Response form to us in the enclosed envelope or fax it to (855) 800-5944.

If we don't hear from you

- We may determine your tax for you.
- Penalty and interest charges will accrue on any unpaid balance we determine you owe.
- If we owe you a refund for another tax year, your unfiled return may delay your refund payment for the other year.

Payment options

Pay now electronically or by phone

The Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS) is a free payment service for paying taxes online or by phone. To use EFTPS, you must enroll online at www.eftps.gov (registration may take up to 7 business days to take effect) . When you use the EFTPS website, you can:

- Receive instant confirmation of your payment
- Access payment history to review previous payments
- Schedule payments up to 365 days in advance
- Cancel a payment before the scheduled date
- Make a payment 24 hours a day, 7 days a week
- Authorize your financial institution or authorized third party (such as an accountant or payroll provider) to schedule payments for you

You may also be able to pay by debit or credit card for a small fee, depending on the type of tax you owe. To see all of our payment options, visit www.irs.gov/payments.

Payment plans

If you can't pay the full amount you owe, pay as much as you can now and make arrangements to pay your remaining balance. Visit www.irs.gov/paymentplan for more information on how to apply for installment agreements and online payment agreements. You can also call us at 1-800-829-0115 to discuss your options.

Small businesses that owe $25,000 or less in assessed tax, penalty, and interest can also apply online for an In-Business Trust Fund Express Installment Agreement at www.irs.gov/paymentplan.

Offer in Compromise

An offer in compromise allows you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. If we accept your offer, you can pay with either a lump sum cash payment plan or periodic payment plan. For more information, visit www.irs.gov/offers.

Payment history

If you made payments through EFTPS, you can log on to your EFTPS account online to review payments you made by phone or online.

If you already paid your balance in full within the past 21 days or made payment arrangements, please disregard this notice.

If you think we made a mistake, call 1-800-829-0115 to review your account.

- Generally, we deal directly with taxpayers or their authorized representatives. However, occasionally we need to speak with other people, such as employees, employers, banks, or neighbors to gather or verify account information. If we contact a third party, the law prohibits us from sharing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify what we need to know. You have the right to request a list of individuals we contact about your account.
- Keep this notice for your records.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that can help protect your taxpayer rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a hardship or you've tried but haven't been able to resolve your problem with the IRS. If you qualify for TAS assistance, which is always free, TAS will do everything possible to help you. Visit www.taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov or call 1-877-777-4778.
