continued

Make a payment—continued

- If you can't pay the amount due, pay as much as you can now and make payment arrangements that allow you to pay off the rest over time. Visit www.irs.gov and search for: "tax payment options" for more information about:
 - Installment and payment agreements—download required forms or save time and money by applying online if you qualify
 - Automatic payment deductions from your bank account
 - Payroll deductions
 - Credit card payments

Or, call us at [REDACTED] to discuss your options.
If you've already paid your balance in full within the past 14 days or made payment arrangements, please disregard this notice.

If we don't hear from you

If you don't pay $9,999.99 by April 20, 2009, interest will increase and additional penalties may apply.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge any applicable penalties.

Failure to file

Description	Amount
Failure-to-file	$ [REDACTED]
When you file your tax return after the due date, we charge a penalty of up to 5.0% of the unpaid tax per month for no more than 5 months or up to 25% of the unpaid amount. If the return is more than 60 days late, we may charge the minimum of $135 or 100% of the unpaid tax, whichever is less, for tax returns due before December 31, 2008. We count part of a month as a full month. (Internal Revenue Code section 6651)

Removal or reduction of penalties

We understand that circumstances—such as economic hardship, a family member's death, or loss of financial records due to a natural disaster—may make it difficult for you to meet your taxpayer responsibility in a timely manner.

If you would like us to consider removing or reducing any of your penalty charges, please do the following:

- Identify which penalty charges you would like us to reconsider (e.g., 2008 late filing penalty).
- For each penalty charge, explain why you believe it should be reconsidered.
- Sign your statement, and mail it to us with a signed copy of your return.

We will review your statement and let you know whether we accept your explanation as reasonable to reduce or remove the penalty charge(s).

Removal of penalties due to erroneous written advice from the IRS

If you were penalized based on written advice from the IRS, we will remove the penalty if you meet the following criteria:

- You asked the IRS for written advice on a specific issue.
- You gave us complete and accurate information.
- You received written advice from us.
- You relied on our written advice and were penalized based on that advice.

To request removal of penalties based on erroneous advice from us, submit a completed Claim for Refund and Request for Abatement (Form 843) to the IRS service center where you filed your tax return. For a copy of the form or to find your IRS service center, go to www.irs.gov or call [REDACTED]

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest on unpaid tax from the date the tax return was due to the date the tax is paid in full. The interest is charged as long as there is an unpaid amount due, including penalties, if applicable. (Internal Revenue Code section 6601).

Period	Days	Interest rate	Interest rate factor	Amount due	Interest charge
██████████	██	6.0	0.012535919	$██████	$██████
██████████	██	5.0	0.012646750	██████	██████
██████████	██	6.0	0.015195019	██████	██████
██████████	██	5.0	0.005494114	██████	██████
Total interest					$██████

We multiply your unpaid tax, penalties, and interest (the amount due) by the interest rate factor to determine the interest due each quarter.

Additional interest charges

If the amount you owe is $100,000 or more, please make sure that we receive your payment within 10 work days from the date of your notice. If the amount you owe is less than $100,000, please make sure that we receive your payment within 21 calendar days from the date of your notice. If we don't receive full payment within these time frames, the law requires us to charge interest until you pay the full amount you owe.

Additional Information
